

CATÉGORIE - POLITIQUE

NOM DE L'OUTIL	WHO Medicines Policy website
SOUS-CATÉGORIES	VIH/SIDA, Paludisme, Santé reproductive, Tuberculose
TYPES DE PRODUIT	Médicaments
DATE DE MISE à JOUR	Updated regularly
VERSION	None
DÉVELOPPÉ PAR	WHO/OMS
QUAND L'UTILISER	When developing, implementing and/or monitoring the effectiveness of national medicines (including ARVs) policies, guidelines, strategies and plans that ensure the availability, affordability and rational use of essential medicines and traditional, complementary and alternative medicines that are safe, effective and of good quality.
LANGUAGE(S)	Anglais
NIVEAU D'UTILISATION	Central
FORME	Website
DEGRÉ DE FORMATION OU D'ASSISTANCE TECHNIQUE REQUIS	None
INPUTS & OUTPUTS	Inputs: None. Outputs: How to develop and implement a national medicines policy
COÛT	Free
AVANTAGES	This guideline focuses on the national drug policy process, strategies and options which can be used by countries and organizations active in the pharmaceutical sector. Each policy component is discussed, with a focus on current problems and new challenges. Each chapter presents strategies and practical approaches that can be used to improve the situation. All chapters include references to publications that provide additional technical and practical details.
CONTRAINTES	The document deals with the pharmaceutical in general, not specific to HIV AIDS
DISPONIBILITÉ	http://www.who.int/medicines/areas/policy/en/index.html
REMARQUES	None
CONTACT	psminfo@who.int